WINDSOR'S BIGGEST CROWD

CLOSING DAY OF MEETING ATTRACTS BAN-NER ATTENDANCE TO CANADIAN COURSE.

Spellbound Wins Labor Day Handicap with East Favorites Fail to Make Especially Good Show ing-Judge Murphy for Moncreif.

Detroit. Mich., September 5.—The closing day of the Windsor meeting brought out a record-breaking crowd, the attendance being by far the largest of the meeting. It was the last opportunity that racegoers would have of seeing the thoroughbreds run in this section and they took advantage of it. The management provided a splendid program for the occasion, but the changed track conditions ruined the card, the going being deep and heavy. It was the first real opportunity that the mud runners had in some time. The public was none too successful in making their selections, as only two favorites won. J. H. Houghton and Spellbound found strong support in their races, however, and there was not much to choose between them and the first choices. The sport opened with an upset, Rash, the odds-on choice, being beaten by both Clay and Fort Worth. This pair had the race between them all the way, the former drawing away in the last fifty yards to win by a length and a half. Rash's defeat resulted in his changing owners. W. G. King-Dodds and Maurice Welsh each put in a claim for the colt and in the drawing Welsh secured him. At $750 Rash looks like a bargain.

Spellbound made a show of his company in the Labor Day Handicap, leading all the way and winning under wraps by three lengths. Sager, the favorite, broke slowly and was immediately caught in a jam and crowded back. This apparently caused the Schreiber colt to sulk, for he pinned back his ears and refused to extend himself until the race was practically over.

High Gun broke down after his last race and will be retired from racing.

My Gal ran in the name and colors of J. W. Burttschell in the closing race this afternoon. Mr. Burttschell purchased the filly on Saturday for $1,000.

Mr. Barttschell purchased the filly on Saturday for $1,000.

Arthur Elrod, who arrived here from Saratoga on Saturday, brings the information that John G. Cavanagh, the advance information official, contemplates retiring from business. He will go abroad this fall and see a bit of racing on the other side.

Joseph Healey has arranged to take the following horses to Toronto to race at the Dufferin Park meeting: Supple, Clay. Flying Squirrel, Carroll, Teddy Bear and Good News.

Francis J. Pons, who will be the leading spirit in the Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair this winter, requested the newspapers to deny the story emanating from Chicago that Joseph A. Murphy would not be the presiding official in the judges' stand at the Jacksonville meeting this winter. "We have already closed with Judge Murphy," said Mr. Pons, "and Judge Brady will be his associate." Judge Price said that he had never even thought of going to Jacksonville and was at a loss to understand how his name came to be connected with the matter.

James Boland, a prominent rider a few seasons back, today purchased of A. G. Weston the black colt The Monk and will race him at the half-mile tracks.

Judge Charles F. Price left for his home in Lonisville immediately after the races, Judge Francis Nelson left for Toronto, but will be on haid at Blue Bonnets on the opening day of the Montreal meeting.

Collis Ormsby broke down in his race on Saturday lost and will be thown and to fiscing.

OLD-TIME SCENES AT HAWTHORNE

Racing Revived for One Day with Plenty of Oppor tunity for Betting.

That the thoroughbred still holds a warm place in the affections of Chicagoars was amply demonstrated yesterday when upwards of 16,000 persons, including many former devotees of the sport, gathered at Hawthorne track to enjoy an afternoon of real racing under the anspices of the labor organizations of Chicago.

For a single day the "lid" which has kept the sport under the ban locally for years was lifted and the scenes of those days when racing was a popular pastime with the people of this great metropolis were once more enacted. There was abundant opportunity for betting. Six books that were operated on the New York plan of slates and stools did a land-office business in the betting ring under the grandstand. The authorities were represented, but no attempt was made to interfere with the bookmaking.

The finishes were in most cases intensely interesting and aroused keen enthusiasm. The crowd exhibited a line spirit throughout and the program went off without a hitch. Three of the five races for thoroughbreds were won by horses from the stable of former licutenant of police T. W. Flynn, whose racers have been in training at Harlem track since the close of the Kentucky meetings.

BURDEN PLACED ON THE POLICE.

New York, September 5.—The directors of the various agricultural societies in the state of New York have decided to go ahead with the state fairs as usual, and will make no attempt to climinate horse races, which have always been features. The fair associations take little stock in the new directors' liability law, it is said, even though this measure has forced the Jockey Club tracks to close their gates temporarily. The directors of the Richmond County Fair at Staten Island have arranged races for the thoroughbred runners, trotters and pacers, hanging up purses with money appropriated by the state and have notified the police department that the law against "bookmaking, with or without writing," must be enforced. As a result Borough Inspector Herlihy will arrest persons found making oral or cash wagers of any kind. The directors of the fair say they are in no danger of prosecution under the directors' liability law providing the police prevent betting, and that is the policy of all the other fair associations throughout the state.

Friends of racing suggested some time ago that it might be well to call the attention of the authorities to the state fairs after September I, but it may be said upon the authority of one of the leading stew ards of the Jockey Club that the racing associations have frowned upon such a plan and will let the fairs go as they please.

LEXINGTON PROSPECTS EXCELLENT.

Most Successful Meeting in History of Track Seem Assured for this Month.

Assured for this Month.

Lexington, Ky., September 5.—Owners, trainers and turf devotees generally have the well-grounded impression that the nine-days meeting to be given by the Kentucky Association, beginning Monday, September 19, and ending Wednesday, September 28, will bring out the largest autumn gathering and be productive of some of the keenest racing and best sport ever witnessed at the historic track. Conditions more favorable never existed for the Kentucky Association. There will be no racing in New York, none of account: in Canada, and no attraction of any kind at any point near here to have a counteracting effect on the attendance. There will also be a big sale of yearlings and horses in training during the meeting that will have the effect of bringing here many who will combine the quest for future racing material with an outling.

Exclusive of the yearlings, all of which are to be removed to outside stalls at once, there are now 200 horses at the track and it is expected by superintendent Ross that before the end of the week every one of the 530 stalls within the enclosure will be occupied. An additional stable of twenty stalls is to be completed before the meeting opens.

Among the racing strings now on the grounds are those of J. W. May, T. C. McDowell, Irving H. Wheatcroft, Jack Baker, Oots Brothers, S. K. Hughes, J. N. Camden, John T. Ireland, Kimbali Patterson, Walter House, Walter Grater, Gallaher Brothers, W. Gerst, G. H. Holle, A. Wilson, William Steele, Allen Steele, W. J. Young, W. G. Yanke, J. C. Milam, Dan T. Morris, James P. Ross, W. L. Lewis, J. T. Williams and T. M. Irvin. Coming from New York are George Odom, Herman Brandt, Williams Wallace, F. A. Forsythe, Max Hirsch, Peter Williams and T. M. Irvin. Coming from New York are George Odom, Herman Brandt, Williams Wallace, F. A. Forsythe, Max Hirsch, Peter Williams and T. M. Irvin. Coming from New York are George Odom, Herman Brandt, Williams Wallace, F. A. Forsythe, Max Hirsch, Peter Williams and G. R. Bryson. Stable reservations hav

James Arthur. A. L. Kirby and George Land. F. J. Pons, Theo Abadic and others will come from Louisville.

The extension of the betting shed and the enlargement of the pari-mutuel office has been completed and it is a marked improvement. There will be six machines on here this fall, three issuing $5 tickets and three $2 tickets, straight place and show, one for each. Gene Elrod will again have the management of the betting ring and John McLaughlin will preside over the auction pooling, as usual.

The compilation of the catalogue for the Kentucky Sales Company's auction of theoroghbreds here September 20 to 24 has been completed and will be issued Thursday. It contains 312 head, of which 263 are yearlings, 39 horses in training and 10 broodmares. All of these horses, with the exception of the 55 head consigned by Irving H. Wheateroft, will be sold by electric light at night at G. D. Wilson's "Horsemen's Headquarters." The Wheateroft consignment will be sold at the same place in the forence on of Saturday, September 24. John Bain will be the auctioneer. Secretary Ken Walker, of the sales company, says that, judging from the expressions he has had from horsemen and the applications for catalogues, the sale will be largely attended.

While at his summer home in British Columbia, Irving H. Wheateroft made entries of two yearlings, the Broomstick—Esteem colt and the Sain—Ora Balley filly, to the Epsom Derdy, but he ras not received any notification of acceptance. He did not have before him the exact date of, the closing of that famous stake and is now of the opinion that he may have sent them in too late.

There was no fast work at the Kentucky Association track this morning because of too much rain and mud, yet the course was alive with horses.

The Kentucky Derby winner Donau was gelded about ten days ago and will not race here.

Virtually all the yearlings that have been at the Kentucky Association track were removed to other quarters today. The Camden string of twenty-stalls barn to be completed by Sunday was begu William Wallace arrived from Saratoga this morning. His horses, along with those of W. P. Fine, will come later in the week.

P. J. Malone wired from Windsor for stable room, W. F. Schulte will send Zlenap, Gliding Belle and Glipian here from Louisville.

Mose Moore is here from Dayton, Ohio.

A. Wilson's Wander had a car fit en route from the east.

The others he bred himself, The Burgomaster yearlings at Brook-dale are the first youngsters by that famous son of Hamburg and Hurly Barly that will come to the races. #### LOUISVILLE ENTRIES EXCEED EXPECTATIONS

Louisville, Ky., September 5.—The exceedingly large number of entries received for the ten stakes at the Churchill Downs fall meeting of nimeteen days' duration, which opens on Saturday, October 1, is the talk of the turf world. In point of class and numbers the combination has not been surpassed in the history of fall racing in the middle west. In this respect the excellence of an eastern meeting is equaled. Secretary Lyman II. Davis always felt that the entry list would be large, but he was not prepared for the breaking of all records in the middle west and on top of this to have the star racers of America named to start here. Manager Winn and President Grainger were at all times sanguine as to the general excellence of the entries and the large list of nominations, but results exceeded their fondest anticipations.

Samuel C. Hildreth leads the list of nominators. He sent in an even fifty, costing him just $500. Second in point of numbers comes deorge Odom with twenty-two, and Louis P. Doerhofer is third with seventeen. Edward Alvey is fourth with sixteen. I. H. Wheatcroft fifth with fourteen and W. G. Yanke sixth with thirteen. Barney Schreiber made twelve entries. E. R. Bradley sent cleven and James Butler and C. C. Van Meter each ten. Thirty-five other turfmen sent in five or more. All entries cost $10 each, which is an increase for the west, as in the past fall stake entrance fees were $5, with the exception of two stakes, for which the few was $10. In 1908 Edward Corrigan made nominations representing $355, the largest amount in the history of fall racing at Churchill Downs until now. This year Mr. Corrigan did not make a single entry. Rain prevented any trials of racers Sunday morning at Douglas Park or Churchill Downs, but the exessation of work will be brief and by tomorrow there will be renewed activity uson the part of trainers in getting their horses in condition for the Kentucky races, which begin September 19 at Lexington. Assuredly the best horses that have come to the fall meetings in Kentucky within the confines of the commonwealth or about to be shipped here from New York and Canada. Will H. Shelley, racing secretary for the Lexington meeting, who was here today conferring with Lyman H. Davis, is enthusiastic over the outlook. He said:

"In all of my experience I never have known so many fast horses to be available for the Kentucky campaign. At Lexington we have all the horses we can take care of and they are of the highest class. Think of receiving 166 entries for the Lexington stake events, an average of thirty-three for each stake, and the men interested in racing will have an idea of the excellent sport in store in this state for the patrons of the turf. I can tell you it is going to be a task to make a satisfactory program this time and it is going to take a really good horse to win. There will be the combination of stake horses, good horses and those hardly so good. We are going to have racing on the order of a fall meeting at Sheepshead Bay. There is not a sick horse at Lexington and the same thing applies to the racers at Douglas Park and Churchill Downs." A number of Texas turfmen will be at Churchill Downs, and the same thing applies to the racers at Douglas Park and Churchill Downs." A number of Texas turfmen will be at Churchill Downs with strings this fall. J. W. Fuller probably is the most noted turfman of the Lone Star State. He is one of the biggest land owners of the Dallas district and a power there both socially and politically. Mr. Fuller has raced many noted horses in recent years, including George Arnold and Tokalon, both celebrated racers. Tokalon wom the Brooklyn Handicap in 1906. Mr. Fuller will bring here the band he has been racing recently in Canada. He has Toy Boy and Nettle Marchnont, both of which have won at Windsor. This noted Texas turfman is a personal friend of Mr. Fuller will bring here the band he has been racing recently in Canada. The stable of house in which are commission, recently received from Texas borsemen several requests for a copy of the law creating theky. He has seventeen youngsters, nine of them fillies and as yet unbroken. They are at Bashtord Manor.

Trainer Wayne Lewis will take three or four horses from the Downs to Lexington. He will race Mettle Bereaud there. Mr. Lewis is going to Lexington more particularly to purchase racers for G. W. J. Bissell at the yearling sale to be conducted during the first week of the Lexington meeting.

Trainer W. C. Westmoreland has returned from Canada, where he went to arrange for the shipment to Churchill Downs of the horses owned by F. J. Pons. The Pons racers will arrive immediately after the close of racing at Windsor.

Horses continue to arrive at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park to prepare for the fall races. A. L. Kirby came today from Latonia with Romp. Hughes and a two-year-old by Allan-a-Dale. The remainder of the string of eighteen which he has been caring for at Latonia for J. B. Respess will be shipped tomorrow to Lexington. While at Lexington the Respess horses will be under the supervision of their owner. At the close of the Lexington aces trainer Kirby will resume charge of the entire stable. Mr. Kirby has just returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where he spent five weeks. He brings the information that indications point to the enactment of a law to legalize betting in Arkansas when the Legislature meets at Little Rock next winter. Essex Park has been purchased by Simon Campbell and his support will help the passage of a favorable bill. Mr. Kirby says that Essex Park and Oaklawn have been kept in excellent condition and that either could be put in readiness for a race meeting within ten days.

Wayne Joplin got in from Saratoga. He brought Olseau und che other racer. Mr. Joplin has had Watch Me here for some time. With Mr. Joplin came his good lightweight rider, T. Koerner, who will rest at his home here until the Lexington meeting begins.

The best trials today at the Downs were by Royal Captive and Alice George, from the stable of J. R. Wainwright. The track was heavy, and they galloped three-eighths in 38. Oiseau worked the same distance in 37½.

Charles McCrackin, formerly manager for the Millstream Stud in Kentucky, says that Messrs. Mills and Bishop still have three broodmares at E. C. Cowdin's farm near Lexington. They are Wild Thyme. Pop Over and Blackbeard. Blackbeard now has a filly foal by Hippodrome and Wild Thyme has a fine coit foal by Voter. Mr. McCrackin says that save for a two-year-old filly by Adam in the care of Tom Welsh, the mares named with their foals constitute the entire holdings of this once extensive establishment.

race at Lexington, Churchill Downs and Latonia.

C. R. Jones, owner of Silver Knight and other horses, was found dead from natural causes in nis bed at a Butte hotel a few days ago.

It is reported that S. C. Hildreth has under consideration an offer from Louis Winans to take charge of the latter's racing stable in Great Britain next year.

William F. Vanderhilt's horse Reinhart won the next year.

William K. Vanderbilt's horse Reinhart won the Prix de Chantilly, a race for three-year-olds and upward, two miles and one and a half furlongs, at Chantilly, France, Sunday.

Bashti, H. P. Whitney's $30,000 filly, has arrived at Gravesend from Saratoga, and trainer Welsh, unless he receives orders to ship her to England without delay, will prepare her for the Matron Stakes at Pimilco, as she seems to have the filly race at her mercy and can thereby pick up about $8,000.

On arrival at Lexington from New York Saturday

On arrival at Lexington from New York Saturday night for an inspection of his yearlings and other thoroughbred stock at Castleton Stud, James R. Keene was stricken with pneumonia and his condition occasioned much concern for a time, but he was reported as improved yesterday. It is his first trip to Kentucky in five years.

Albert Simons has become James Rowe's trainer, and he has arranged to take a string which will include Iron Mask, Candidate, Dreaming, Sweepaway, Lahore, Wrap and Van Den from Saratoga to Canada for the Montreal, Toronto and Fort Erie meetings, Iron Mask is the property of James R, Keene, Mr, Rowe bought Sweepaway, Lahore and Wrap at the Keene sale and Van Den, a half brother to Vanls, was acquired at the Sanford sale. After the Canadian meetings Mr, Simons will take the Rowe horses to Pimlico and after that part of them will go to one of the winter tracks, Jacksonville probably.
